MYB

NANCY FLEETER had extraordinary experience in the management of art organizations such as American Ballet Theatre and John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts. Maryland Youth Ballet was fortunate to have Ms. Fleeter serve as the organization's Chief Financial Officer from 2006 to 2008, the year of her death. Ms. Fleeter understood that the art of ballet encompasses more than just dance but also music and costume. Ms. Fleeter's husband, Rick, and her friends established the Nancy Fleeter Costume Fund as a tribute to Nancy and her passion for ballet.

MARYLAND YOUTH BALLET'S NATIONAL REPUTATION IS, IN PART, DUE TO THE HIGH QUALITY OF ITS COSTUME REPERTOIRE. LOVINGLY ENVISIONED, CREATED, AND MAINTAINED BY AWARD-WINNING COSTUME DESIGNER JUDITH HANSEN.

Maintaining MYB's costumes is costly and time consuming. Each costume requires cleaning, maintenance, repair, and proper storage to retain its beauty. Portions of the costumes in the MYB costume repertoire are aging and will need to be replaced. Your tax deductible contribution to Maryland Youth Ballet's Nancy Fleeter Costume Fund will help MYB maintain its existing costumes and design and produce new costumes to enhance the dancers and the dance. Please help MYB preserve and improve one of its most important assets.
