BHM24

BLACK HISTORY MONTH
February 2024

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

In 2020, MYB began celebrating Black History Month (BHM) with special programs to highlight the achievements of Blacks in dance—past, present, and future. At the core is dance education and performance. For low or no cost, we provide classes for our students and the broader community in various genres of the African Diaspora: West African, Dunham, Afrobeat, Hip-Hop, as well as other styles including ballet, Horton, Contemporary and Gaga. The dance concerts, presented in person and virtually, have featured local and national students and professionals. In addition, we host annual panel discussions with area dance professionals and academicians, interviews and artist talk backs with prominent dancers and choreographers of color, and original video content chronicling the real life experiences of some of our students and alumni.

NOTE FROM MYB'S BHM COORDINATOR

It's hard to believe that we are now in our 5th year of MYB's annual Black History Month Celebration (BHM24)! The entire month has been filled with numerous special events and classes for both MYB's enrolled students and the community at large. It is our extended community that we hope to serve with this evening's performance, presented by MYB for the first time at the Cultural Arts Center, with over ten dance schools, colleges, companies and organizations from throughout the DMV.

We humbly thank you for your support in attending this historic show of black dance excellence. If you find yourself inspired by what you see on the stage, we challenge you to consider making a personal or matched donation so that each of these organizations can continue to serve their communities. To help MYB continue to provide meaningful programming like this evening's event, please also consider donating specifically to Maryland Youth Ballet's Heritage Fund.

While financial contributions are the goal, even more importantly, please continue to support live arts by attending shows. The next generation of dancers rely on it.

With Gratitude,

Pascha Barnwell
